

Macfonse Akinnugba Osmond, born 30 May, 1976 in Ondo, Ondo State - Nigeria to a devout Roman Catholic Family, in discerning his vocation joined the Religious Congregation of De La Salle Brothers in 1996 and completed his Novitiate program in Nairobi Kenya in 1999.

He studied Mass Communication, Human Psychology, Adolescent Psychology, Counseling and Theology; he is also a Certified System Engineer and Internet Certified Webmaster (ICW).

Works include, Extra ordinary minister of the Eucharist in a Ministry to the Sick in Nairobi Hospital in 1999; Counselor and foster father of HIV/AIDS orphans at Nyumbani Orphanage in Kenya from 1999 to 2001; between 2001 and 2003 worked as journalist for Kenyan and Nigerian newspapers; above all edifying God's word in full ministration while in 2004 he founded Signum Fidei Apostolate, a charitable organization; attending to the needs of the youth with special preference to the poor till date.

Published books, Awake to live a fuller life, Learning Computer and How to design website among other written anthologies.