

His Imperial and Royal Highness

Don Salvatore Ferdinando Antonio von Caputo

by the Grace of God and by Hereditary Birth-Right, and Lawfull Successor, King of the Romans, Lord Augustus Holy Roman German Empire, King of Antioch and Sicily, Prince of Abruzzo, Aquitaine and Taranto, Count of Alba, the Duchy of Bohemia, Celano and Capizzi, Imperial Grand Master of the Royal Knights, Grand Prior of the Sovereign Order of St. Maria of Jerusalem of the House of Antioch and Svevia.

In pursuance of the Supreme Powers from dynastic rights and the solemn power to create: Princes, Great Masters of the Sovereign Order of his dynastic family, Dukes, Marquises, Counts, Viscounts, Barons, Knights and Nobles with the title (predicated) the city, places and castles of the Western Roman Empire with all the privileges, honors, privileges and obligations established by noble codes, regulations and ordinances of the Imperial and Royal House of Hohenstaufen and Antioch of Caputo Dynasty,

Know Ye by these Presents We advance, create and prefer to the state and degree style, dignity, honor and titles to

Don David Leon Cooper

Be honored

Duke of Antioch

Marques of Cyprus

Count of Tuscany

to have and to hold said title and said title may pass by letters testament or by intestacy by right of primogenitor to said noble's heirs, successors and assigns, provided however that this title is not subject to transfer, sale, nor by hypothecation nor said title otherwise alienable during or after the life of said noble.

In Witness whereof We have caused these Ours Letters to be made Patent,

Witness Ourselves at the Office of the Prince this 15 day of November in the year 2008.

We have affixed our signature and Official Seal.

