Summary:

Simonpeter Chukwuemeka Nnolumfu (a.k.a) Simonpeter of Africa, hails from Anaocha Local Government Area, Agulu in Anambra State of Nigeria. He was born during the dawning of the Nigerian civil war in the late Seventies. He did his primary Education at St. Augustine Catholic School, Otu-Ocha, from 1976, and was later transferred to Holy Ghost primary School at Makurdi, in Benue State of Nigeria from 1983 where he completed his primary education and at the same time had continued to serve as an apprentice; which lasted for Six years of training, whilst he studies alongside up to his Secondary School Level.

However, after serving his apprenticeship in 1989, he was engaged on remedial courses offered by the University of Agriculture on mass communication, in Benue State, but was disrupted for lack of sponsorship. Although, he is a man of great fortitude, with an ardent desire to achieving his dream goals and he is never deterred by the events of time nor by the numerous challenges that life presents. He is an author and a prolific writer, a genius, an Orator and educator with many talents and spiritual gifts. He has worked with many charitable groups in Nigeria, and abroad and has written a number of books on the subject for the importance of giving in the spirit of the holy gospel.

In 1994, he wrote his first book on sins against the Holy Ghost, which sold several copies. He has also written a book on prayer, corporal works of mercy and had more than twelve other Titles to be published. He has been a staunch member of Saint Jude Solidarity group and Catholic Charismatic group over the years and had pioneered several causes for the growth of God's kingdom in the World, and has a working knowledge of the holy Scriptures.

He joined the Catholic Diocese of Johannesburg-South Africa, in 1998 where he intends to pursue his vocational training program. He participated actively during his philosophical studies in the Seminary. More so, he completed his Diploma in biblical Studies at Catholic Bible College, and finally did a transfer program at the North-western Theological Seminary in South Africa. He was also engaged with other private learning, where he did his studies on business education, Linguistic courses, Criminology, Immigration, Computer studies and biblical canons. He is the vicar for the Victorious Christian Orthodox Church, under the auspices of the Spanish Orthodox and the Orthodox Catholic Church in America and all Africa. He is a man of vision and a true lover of God's Word.
